

The Old Barracks Association operated the Old Barracks Museum, a National Historic Landmark that welcomes more than 15,000 annual visitors, including NJ school students and tourists from around the world.

As a touchstone for colonial and revolutionary history in New Jersey, the Old Barracks Museum brings the world of colonial America to life through interpretive programs, exhibits, and preservation so that visitors can appreciate New Jersey's history, the diverse people who made it, and why it matters.

- $1 per pay period provides field trip admission for 3 Trenton students.
- $5 per pay period provides field trip admission for 16 Trenton students.
- $10 per pay period provides field trip admission for 32 Trenton students, roughly one whole class.