

EngenderHealth

for a better life

Women's health organization committed to the belief that sexual and reproductive health is a human right and vital for women to reach their full potential.

- $480 provides 20 women with one year of essential reproductive health services.
- $600 sponsors 12 community education sessions about the risks for early marriage or pregnancy, and the importance of prenatal care, for women and girls.